

Vienna Dialogues

People on the Move and the Ideas they Bring: Mobility of Ideas, Motifs and Texts in Byzantium and Beyond

Friday, 29 May to Saturday, 30 May, 2015

Department of Byzantine and Modern Greek Studies, University of Vienna

Friday, 29 May

- 13.30 Registration and Coffee
- 13.45 Welcoming Remarks
Claudia Rapp (Department of Byzantine and Modern Greek Studies, Vienna University)
- 14.00-15.00 Christian Høgel (Department of History, University of Southern Denmark, Odense)
Did Niketas Magistros, Envoy and Author, Introduce Eastern Modes of Narration into Byzantine Literature?
Respondent: Olof Heilo (Department of Byzantine and Modern Greek Studies, Vienna University)
- 15.00-15.30 Break
- 15.30-16.30 Manolis Ulbricht (Seminar for Semitic and Arabic Studies, Freie Universität Berlin)
The 'Long March' towards West – How Did Europe get to Know the Qur'an?
Respondent: Elvira Wakelnig (Department of Oriental Studies, Vienna University)
- 16.30-16.45 Break
- 16.45-17.45 Emilio Bonfiglio (Faculty of Oriental Studies, University of Oxford)
New Perspectives on the Classification and Identification of the Pseudo-Chrysostomica in the Greek and Oriental Traditions
Respondent: Volker Menze (Department of Medieval Studies, Central European University, Budapest)
- 17.45-18.00 Break
- 18.00-19.00 Konstantin Vetrochnikov (Bibliothèque Byzantin, Collège de France, Paris)
Michel, archevêque de Bethléem, hiérarque du Patriarcat de Jerusalem, ambassadeur du Patriarche Oecuménique en pays russes (Michael, Erzbischof von Bethlehem, Hierarch des Patriarchats von Jerusalem, Botschafter des Ökumenischen Patriarchen in russischen Landen)
Respondent: Jürgen Fuchsbauer (Department of Slavic Studies, Regensburg University)
- 19.30 Dinner for Conference Participants, Gasthaus Pfudl

Saturday, 30 May

- 9.00-10.00 Réka Forrai (Department of History, University of Southern Denmark, Odense)
Looting Letters: the Latin Canon of Greek Literature in the Medieval West
Respondent: Christian Gastgeber (Division of Byzantine Research, IMAFO, Austrian Academy of Sciences)
- 10.00-10.30 Break
- 10.30-11.30 Kostas Yiavis (Department of Medieval and Modern Greek Philology, University of Thessaloniki)
Cultural Mobility and Exchange in the Vernacular Byzantine Romance
Respondent: Carolina Cupane (Division of Byzantine Research, IMAFO, Austrian Academy of Sciences)
- 11.30-11.45 Break
- 11.45-12.45 Christophe Erismann (Department of Philosophy, University of Lausanne)
Transferring Aristotelian Logic from Alexandria to Constantinople: Manuscripts, Concepts, Perspectives
Respondent: George Karamanolis (Department of Philosophy, Vienna University)
- 12.45-13.15 Concluding Discussion
Moderator: Alexander Riehle (Department of Byzantine and Modern Greek Studies, Vienna University)
- 13.30 Lunch for Conference Participants, Ristorante Da Capo