

DRS Award for Excellent Supervision

Recently submitted your dissertation? Want to show your appreciation for your supervisor's unwavering support and guidance?

Now is your chance!

DRS Award for Excellent Supervision

Celebrate excellence. Honor your mentor.

Each year, Dahlem Research School honors two professors of Freie Universität Berlin for their outstanding supervision of doctoral researchers.

The award includes a prize of 2,000 Euro for the support of early career researchers.

Nominations must be for a professor of Freie Universität Berlin.

All doctoral researchers at Freie Universität Berlin are invited to nominate their supervisor.

Nominations are accepted if you have submitted your dissertation in the current academic year (October 1 to September 30).

Help us recognize outstanding supervision!
