

Good Life, State and Society

生活智慧、国家、社会

Conference Agenda

Conference venue: Freie Universität Berlin, Seminarzentrum Rost- und Silberlaube, Habelschwerdter Allee 45, 14195 Berlin-Dahlem

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 7, 2018

9:00 Arrival and registration at conference venue

9:30 Welcome notes (Katja Levy and Stefan Gosepath)

10:00 Coffee break

10:15 PANEL 1: GOOD LIFE, THIRD SECTOR RULES AND REGULATIONS

- Jin Jinping (Peking University): Dual Management System in Legislation: From the Regulation of Social Associations (1989) to the Charity Legislation (2016)
- Anthony Spires (University of Melbourne): Regulation as Political Control: China's First Charity Law and Its Implications for Civil Society
- Knut Benjamin Pissler (Max Planck Institute for Comparative and International Private Law): The Impact of Recent Legislation on Nonprofit Organisations Engaging in China
- Han Junkui (Beijing Normal University): Reflection on Recent NPO Legislation in China: Based on the Logic of Classified Governance

Concluding discussion

13:00 Lunch break

14:00 PANEL 2: GOOD LIFE, SOCIAL GOVERNANCE AND STATE-SOCIETY CO-OPERATION

- Deng Guosheng (Tsinghua University): Co-production and Innovation in Public Services: What Messages From the Provision of Child Care Services in Rural China?
- Katja Levy (Freie Universität Berlin): Social Innovators in an Authoritarian Setting – the Role of Foundations in the PRC

- Chu Songyan (Chinese Academy of Governance): The Practice of Scientific & Technological Associations Undertaking Functions Transformed From the Government in China: Some Key Issues
- Hu Yinglian (Chinese Academy of Governance): From Clerk to Partner: Comparative Case Study on Third Party Regulation of Food and Drug Safety in China

Concluding discussion

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 8, 2018

10:00 Arrival and registration at conference venue

10:15 PANEL 3: GOOD LIFE, STATE AND SOCIETY: COMPARISON AND CO-OPERATION

- Annette Zimmer / Roman Paul Turczynski (Westfälische Wilhelms-Universität Münster): Two Models of Civil Society and State Co-operation: de Tocqueville vs. Hegel
- Ma Qingyu (Chinese Academy of Governance): Comparison of Relations Between Governments and NGOs in China and in Germany
- Nora Sausmikat: Civil Society in East Asia – Between Third Sector and Advocacy Movement

Concluding discussion

12:30 Lunch break

13:30 PANEL 4: GOOD LIFE, STATE, SOCIETY AND FOREIGN ACTORS

- Mark Sidel (International Center for Not-for-Profit Law): Two Years of Implementation of the Overseas NGO Law: Coping Strategies and Impact on US-based NGOs and Foundations in China
- Heike Holbig / Bertram Lang (Goethe Universität Frankfurt): Restraining, Readjusting, Replacing? The Contested role of International Non-profit Organisations in China
- Andreas Fulda (University of Nottingham) / Horst Fabian: Thinking Strategically about China's Overseas NGO Law: The View from Europe

Concluding discussion

15:45 Coffee break

16:00

PANEL 5: GOOD LIFE, ADVOCACY AND SPACES OF ACTION

- Bettina Gransow (Freie Universität Berlin): Chinese Migration Policies, Urbanization and Migrant NGOs From the Perspective of Jianghu (江湖) Theorizing
- Mao Peijin (Chinese Academy of Governance): The Theoretical Background and Influence Factors of Non-Governmental Organizations Participating in Policy Advocacy
- Lu Chen (Graduate School of East Asian Studies, FU Berlin): The Moving Temples—A Study on the Religious Associations of Fishermen in the Eastern Part of Tai Lake

Concluding discussion

18:00

Stefan Toepler (George Mason University): wrap-up and conclusions

Gefördert vom

Bundesministerium für Bildung und Forschung

aufgrund eines Beschlusses
des Deutschen Bundestages